The David C.
HERRIMAN FUND
of the GREATER CINCINNATI FDN.

Request for Proposals

Greater Cincinnati Foundation (GCF) invites eligible organizations to apply for funding. The deadline for proposal submission is October 1, 2020 by 11:59pm. This is a competitive process. The invitation to submit a proposal does not guarantee a grant award.

About the David C. Herriman Fund of GCF

The David C. Herriman Fund of Greater Cincinnati Foundation was established by Mr. Herriman to facilitate grants to regional performing arts organizations through a competitive process. The funds available for distribution in 2020 are $230,000.

Funding Focus

The Fund was created to support the arts in the Greater Cincinnati area of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, with a preference for the performing arts. Special consideration will be given to enhancing performance through support for bringing in performance artists, directors, choreographers, authors, musicians, etc. Proposals for the performance of new works and for the education of youth, specifically in the performing arts, are encouraged.

Purpose:

- In Mr. Herriman's words, "make possible what would otherwise be impossible" opportunities for arts organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Result:

- Cincinnati area audiences will enjoy unique and extraordinary arts experiences.

Use of Funds

Funding may be used to help launch a new program or significantly enhance existing programs. Grants for capital purposes are discouraged, other than grants for equipment related to a specific performance. Funding will not be awarded for campaigns, special events or fundraising.

Criteria

- Applicants must be local 501(c)(3) organizations, which support the arts in Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont counties in Ohio, Campbell, Kenton and Boone counties in Kentucky, and Dearborn County, Indiana.
- Applicants may be large or small organizations, with a strong preference for performing arts organizations, including musical groups. Colleges and universities, however, are excluded.
- In accordance with Mr. Herriman's wishes of creating meaningful impact, one larger grant (up to $184,000) and one or two smaller grants (up to $23,000 each) will be awarded.
- Project/performance should commence in 2021 and conclude no later than December 31, 2022.
- No one organization may be awarded a grant from the Herriman Fund for more than two years in succession.
- Special consideration shall be given to enhancing performances through support for bringing in performance artists, directors, choreographers, authors, musicians, etc.
- Grants for education of youth, specifically for the performing arts, are also encouraged.
- Grants for performing new works are encouraged.
